

Mandatory self-declaration relating to the submission of student assignments

I acknowledge that by submitting the examination, project assignment, portfolio assignment or other types of written work at Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences, I must ensure that:

1. The completed assignment has not been previously submitted as part of an examination at Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences or at a different educational institution in Norway or abroad.
2. A completed individual home examination or another type of individual written work is an individual and independent work, not based on the same original work or with the same author or joint disposition as other completed assignments.
3. References for all used sources, including a student's own work, are provided with the correct source reference.

Students who have cheated or attempted to cheat may, as a result, have their examination annulled and / or be expelled, cf. The Act Relating to Universities and University Colleges §§ 4-7 and 4-8.

The above conditions are regulated in more detail in The Regulations for Admission, Programmes of Study and Examinations at Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences §§ 8-1 and 8-2.

By checking the box next to "I have read and accepted" in Studentweb, I confirm that I am aware that violation of the above provisions is considered cheating.

You are responsible for familiarizing yourself with Inland Norway University of Applied Sciences' regulations, including rules on proper citation and reference. The declaration is to make you aware of your responsibility and the consequences of cheating. A missing statement does not release you from this responsibility.
